

Hi Mom!

We landed in Oahu late yesterday but got up early to check things out. Just kayaked out to the Mokulua Islands and taking a quick break before we head back in- just took this picture!! We walked around the whole island in a few minutes and found a tiny pool in the cliff. There's a local fish market back in Oahu that we'll check out for an early dinner when we get back.

See you in two weeks!
Jason
